Syrup of Figs

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is Nature's Own True Laxative. It is the most easily taken and the most pleasantly effective remedy known to cleanse the system when bilious or constive; to dispel headaches, colds and fevers; to cure habitual constipation, indigestion, etc. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by H. B. Garner, Hopkinsville, Ky.

A Victory for Dog Owners.

FRANKFORT, JAN. 8.—The Court of Appeals today decided the case of the Commonwealth vs. Hazelwood, from Woodford county, which involved the question as to whether a dog could be the subject of larceny. Judge Holt delivered the opinion reversing the judgment of the lower court, and decides that, although at common law a dog was not personal property, the rule has been abrogated, and that a man can be imprisoned for stealing a dog just as well as if he had stolen a sheep.

Can't Make Anything Like It.

I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons' Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the liver to action and at the same time aid in (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system. No other remedy within my knowledge can fill its place.

L. M. HIXSON, M. D., Washington, Ark.

The Contested Election.

The Winfree-Anderson contested election case is now an absorbing topic. Judge Winfree informs us that Judge Grace will continue this session of the court into next week when he will give the case a hearing. One of our attorneys who understands the case gives the legal outlines as follows: "Winfree has proved by several witnesses, who have a general acquaintance, that about 75 names which appear on the poll books for Anderson are not known in this county. It being impossible to prove a negative, he cannot establish positively that these voters do not live here, but he alleges they do not from the fact that they are not known by men of a general acquaintance. The legal point involved is, whether Judge Anderson will have to prove the residence of these voters. If the court holds that he does not, then he will be likely to continue in office; otherwise Judge Winfree will 'step in.' Besides this there is a mass of depositions about the illegality of numerous other votes.

The Delightful Liquid Laxative.

Syrup of Figs is a most agreeable and valuable family remedy, as it is easily taken by old and young, and is prompt and effective in curing Habitual Constipation and the many ills depending on a weak or inactive condition of the kidneys, liver and bowels. It acts gently, strengthens the organs which it acts on, and weakens those that are unhealthy. It is sold by H. B. Garner, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Around Town.

1,000 bushels of Clover Seed wanted. JNO. R. GREEN & CO.

F. P. Renshaw and Clark have purchased the grocery stock of J. T. Barrow.

FOR RENT:—A good frame cottage, with stable and good outhouses. Apply at this office.

Prohibition carried in McLean county, Saturday, by a large majority. Every precinct went dry.

Mrs. Hart can now be found at M. Lipstone's store, No. 9 Main Street, where she will be glad to see her lady customers.

It is earnestly requested that all members of the Y. M. C. A. shall attend the meeting to-night. Business of unusual importance will be considered.

Several wagon loads of "movers" passed through the city Monday. They were shivering under the cold wave and their canvas covers looked like lids of snow.

Prof. J. W. Rust went down to Crofton Sunday to arrange for the Circle meeting there on Jan. 25 and 30. Rev. J. N. Freestridge will preach there on the 28th.

STORE ROOM FOR RENT:—Corner of 9th and Clay streets, now occupied by J. T. Barrow. Apply to JNO. R. GREEN & CO.

Mrs. Anna Rives, an influential and highly respected citizen of Garrettsburg, died last Thursday of pneumonia. She was buried Friday. Her son-in-law, Allen is now critically ill.

The thermometer bobbed up Monday morning at 4 degrees above zero. The streets were as slick as glass and walking was a doubtful business. This is the Sunniest Sunday and don't you forget it.

The "Inducements" offered by us to subscribers are immense. See another column.

Lee Johnson went to Crofton yesterday to represent County Attorney Payne in several miscellaneous cases. It seems that some boys down there have been trying to demolish a school house and Lee went down to apply the law.

The Henderson Journal remarks: "Look here, Col. Fonda, why don't you have that Jug train run to Hopkinsville? Aren't the feelings of that good old town to be consulted in the matter of Jugs as well as Madisonville? Both are dry."

An effort is being made to get a market house. Several prominent citizens have spoken to us on this subject, and the demand is general and pressing. We believe if some interested party would take the lead the arrangements could soon be completed.

Jerry Terry, of Elkton, and Dr. R. R. Grady, of Trenton, are announced candidates for the Senate in the next election.

composed of Todd, Logan and Simpson counties. W. E. King is out for the Legislature while W. B. Brewer, of Fairview, is being boomed for the same place.

Subscriptions to any paper or magazine in the world taken at this office at club prices that will in many instances save the price of the NEW ERA. For instance, the daily Courier-Journal (six issues a week) and the WEEKLY NEW ERA for $10.50; or TRI-WEEKLY for $11.50.

The case of Steven Moss' estate vs. the Southern Mutual Life Insurance Co., will come up for trial in the Circuit Court this week. A few days after Moss took out his policy he was found dead. The company refused to pay the policy and the estate is now suing for the amount.

An effort is being made to organize the business men of the city into some effective plan of action to secure a government postoffice building. The NEW ERA has pressed this matter into the public mind, and we believe it is a public building, and we believe if our influential business men will work patiently we will get it.

M. Lipstone has moved his entire stock, No. 9 Main street, where he is now offering the biggest bargains of the season in Winter Dry Goods, Millinery, &c. A splendid line of Ladies' Furnishing Goods now going for prices never before offered. A select lot of Cloaks and long and short wraps, all at styles, are being closed out at and below cost. Don't miss this chance for a bargain.

The Bayse-Davis Comedy Company wound up a week's engagement at the Opera House, Saturday night, with a sweet, little Irish melo-drama, "An Irish Boy." Mr. Burton did a nice piece of character acting, showing more versatility than in any part he assumed during the week. The company announced a return engagement for March which was warmly received in a room of applause, and they can feel assured that crowded houses will welcome them back to Hopkinsville.

The following are the officers of Church Hill Grange for 1887. They will be publicly installed on the evening Jan. 14th: J. W. McGaughey, Worshipful Master; A. H. Wallace, Overseer; F. M. Pierce, Lecturer; J. B. Walker, Steward; J. W. Lander, Asst. Steward; M. V. Owen, Chaplain; W. A. Glass, Secretary; J. M. Adams, Treasurer; G. R. Pierce, Gate-keeper; Mrs. A. M. Henry, Pomona; Miss Rosa Dade, Flora; Miss Lulu Pierce, Veres; Miss Lizzy Owen, Lady Asst. Steward; Miss Fannie Clark, Librarian; Trustees: W. W. West, F. M. Pierce, and P. J. Glass.

Henderson Journal: Hopkinsville, determined that Henderson shall not be more learned than herself, has recently organized a C. L. S. C., and as it is both intelligent and enthusiastic, Hendersonians will have to look to their laurels. Both circles are apparently determined that the ladies shall do all the talking, as no gentlemen have been admitted to either. Perhaps they have decided that geology, English Literature and Modern Christianity shall be their own peculiar weapons, and shall be held in reserve against Politics, Prohibition and Trade. If so, the last three are doomed, and as we don't wish to be "spelled down," we might now declare ourselves with the ladies, invitation or no invitation to join the C. L. S. C.

Begin the new year with a subscription to the NEW ERA, $1.50 a year for the WEEKLY; $2.50 for the TRI-WEEKLY with ticket in our big drawing next April. It's a good investment.

H. H. Goley arrested Bill Lloyd and John Caldwell, colored, yesterday for gambling and lodged them in jail.

Monday a very interesting case was argued in the Circuit Court by Lunde and Chappin for the plaintiff and John Feland for the defendant. The case was a suit for damages against the L. & N. railroad brought by Mrs. Joseph Cordier, a train and killed, at Manumington, for which the plaintiff prays for $10,000 damages.

Bowling Green Times: Dr. J. J. Backus, Dr. Blakeley's partner, has moved to Montgomery, Trigg county, Ky., to practice medicine. The doctor during his residence in Bowling Green made many warm friends, who are loth to part with him. He was a hard student before he entered the practice of medicine and graduated with honor. We commend him to the people of Montgomery as a gentleman and a physician who is in every way worthy of their confidence.

A wagon load of merry skaters went out to the Crabapple pond, Saturday night, to spend a few hours on the ice. The evening was a glorious one and the young folks enjoyed it to the fullest extent. Those in the party were Misses Virginia and Lucy Dade, Green Henry, Mattie Young, Kate Durrett, Genuieve Anderson, Mary Green and Misses Tom Dade, James Green, Dale Green, Bob Cook, M. F. Wintner, Archie Bodles, Will Stoner, Will Nourse, James Scobey, John Scobey and Jarred Crabbe.

Deaths.

Woodbridge: Frank Plunk Woodbridge died on his farm near Lexington, Saturday evening, January 8th, in the 25th year of his age. He was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Woodbridge of this city, and leaves behind two sisters and three brothers to mourn his loss. He was reared in this city. In early life he was a friend and companion of the writer. That friendship was continued up to the time of his death. We knew him as a child, in youth and in manhood. He was kind, thoughtful, intelligent, modest. He won a degree in Vanderbilt University, and, in the words of his professor, "was one of the best students in the South." He had the instincts of a scientist, and had been spared, in doubt would have become a name and reputation in that realm of study. He engaged in business in this city for several years and was not only popular in commercial circles but was a favorite in society. He was well equipped for life, but disease checked his progress. For many months he had been in bad health, several days before his death he grew rapidly worse, and he died in the arms of his mother. His funeral was held here last night. The services were held at the Baptist church, Monday at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. N. Freestridge.

CROFTON.

CROFTON, KY., Jan. 9, '87.
Editor New Era:
Mr. E. Higgins has quit his job as Marshal of our town.

Mr. Britton, silver-smith, has located in town, and can be found at the store of E. B. Leroy & Son.

Several freight cars were thrown from the track at Empire yesterday evening by a failure to throw the switch in time.

Prof. J. W. Rust was here yesterday arranging for the Circle Meeting of his church, which will be held here the 5th Sunday in this month.

The school and third-class are always referred to the box by for lessons in industry, and yet when one of those lessons begins an exploring expedition through the heart of the man, the school, the man displays an industry that makes the box ashamed of himself.

Every man knows that a woman is a necessary adjunct to manhood in every household, there is no controversy about that, but whether its services could be dispensed with when a woman wants to cut her throat or to take her life in her own hands is another matter.

W. W. Chubb returned last week from the Purchase with twenty-five head of calves which he wants to sell.

A complete collection of dandelion seeds in the pasture of pulling one of the weeds out of one of them be sure and satisfy heretofore.

Wardens of our town are very low in consumption, and is not expected to live but a few days.

Mr. Haley, wife of Milton M. Haley, of the Hardy precinct, died last Friday morning at her home in this city. She was a daughter of William Walker, and was an affectionate and devoted wife and mother. May the Lord sustain the bereaved husband and son in their great loss.

Mr. T. H. Hunk, who teaches the public school here, had some difficulty in the school room with the two sons of the Rev. J. N. Freestridge, who were visiting here. He was convinced their teacher that they had been guilty of a breach of the peace, consequently warrants were issued for their arrest. He is now in jail, and the matter is being investigated.

The following changes of residence have been made here this week: G. R. Hays moves to A. B. Long's new house; W. J. Albright to the Oberly-Koster house, and Louis Rice to the Drake residence.

Dr. Paul A. G. R. Hunk have been made here this week: G. R. Hays moves to A. B. Long's new house; W. J. Albright to the Oberly-Koster house, and Louis Rice to the Drake residence.

GEN. BUCKNER'S CANDIDACY.
State Senator Smith Says His District is a Unit for the Old Soldier, and That He Will Certainly Get the Nomination.

LEXINGTON TIMES.
Hon. D. H. Smith, of Laramie county, S. D., is in the city today. He was seen this morning at Alexander's Hotel and expressed his interest in the State of Kentucky. He said that he had taken part in the contest for Governor, but will not do him material damage. I think the sentiment is so strongly in favor of him that he will win, even if he is not elected. He is a man of no danger, however, of his friends remaining with him, and they are already at work all over the State.

CLIPPER'S WORK.

How the Little Blind God Operates—Seasons Favorable for His Favors.

The poet who wrote, "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," possibly knew well the impulses of the heart but he failed to realize the period of the happiest consummations, if the statistics of Christian country are to be accounted. Boys and young ladies are generally the months to which the fancy flies in search of sentiment, but contrary to the promises of celestial zephyrs, cerulean skies and soft and balmy mid-summer nights the little blind god seems to have pursued the hunt for hearts most faithfully in the bleak and dreary December. Just think of it, 62 weddings in December against 19 for May and 13 for June. The following figures kindly furnished by the bachelor editor of the Christian Clerk's office will furnish food for reflection to those "trampling on the brink." Three hundred and nineteen pairs of hearts were strung on Cupid's necklace during 1886. Of these 20 licenses were issued in January, 26 in February, 31 in March, 22 in April, 19 in May, 13 in June, 16 in July, 16 in August, 27 in September, 32 in October, 35 in November and SIXTY TWO in December—demonstrating beyond all shadow of doubt that the winter months wear the crown. The only way to explain this seeming collision between climate and sentiment is that the boys do their courting in summer and their marrying in winter.

Marriages this year have been pretty brisk. Thirty licenses have been issued to John Foster and Belle Wicks, John Hamby and Thelma Yarell, J. A. Whitlock to Susie Sheldon, Seaton Ward to Lena Bice, George Barrow to Lena Vowell, Albert Cantrell to Mary Carroll, Milton Barnes to Mary Ferrill, Jack McIntosh to Ann Hollifield. To one and all the NEW ERA extends greetings and may the little god continue the good work.
